

Seeking English-speaking

Volunteers

EAL Conversation Group at the Brandon Public Library

English as an additional language (EAL) conversation groups will run every Saturday, 2:30—4:00 pm, of March and April. The program's goal is to provide English-learners with a free, supportive environment to practice and improve their English.

The Library is seeking fluent English-speakers to volunteer as participants in the conversation groups. No long-term commitment is required. Orientation will be provided. For more information or to acquire an application form, please visit the library, phone 204-727-6648, or email Assistant Librarian Danielle at Danielle@wmrl.ca.

Volunteers must be 18 or older.

The Brandon Library is located at 710 Rosser Avenue.
